Description

Antique mahogany waterfall sectional bookcase dating to circa 1920. A classic and highly sought after piece, featuring the distinctive graduated waterfall design with open fronted sections, ideal for displaying books or decorative items. Constructed in rich mahogany with a warm, attractive tone and good grain throughout. The bookcase is made in five separate sections, allowing for easier transport and flexible placement within the home. Each section sits securely atop the next, forming a tall and elegant unit. The piece offers excellent storage capacity while maintaining a relatively slim depth, making it well suited for a variety of interiors including period and modern settings. Condition is good for its age with expected signs of use and light wear consistent with a genuine antique. Dimensions Height 205 cm Width 87 cm Depth 31 cm
