Description

A rather stunning set of four George III painted chairs. Circa 1800. Most interesting drawn, with an almost art-deco design to the back rests. The finely hand painted details really pop and make for a super decorative and versatile set of chairs. The construction of the chairs and style in which they have been painted leans towards an attribution to Gillows. Structurally sound, seats intact, some paintwork has been refreshed- historically and sympathetically. SH • 44CM
