Description

Antique pine large chest with a classic rustic look, offering both character and practical storage. Crafted from solid pine, this piece showcases a warm natural tone and timeless appeal, making it a versatile addition to a range of interiors. Ideal for use as a storage trunk or blanket box, and equally suited for placement in a hallway where it can be used to store shoes while doubling as a practical bench seat. The chest provides generous internal storage space and would work well in living rooms, bedrooms or entranceways. Condition is consistent with age and use, adding to its authentic antique charm.
