Description

A fine Regency period mahogany Pembroke table, the well-figured extending top over a slim frieze with a single drawer, all raised on square reeded legs terminating in original brass castors and united by a beautifully shaped stretcher. The narrow footprint when closed makes it easy to place against a wall in a hallway, living space or study, with the option to extend as required. Very good antique condition, with a warm, aged patina and surface wear consistent with age. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place. English, circa 1820. Dimensions Closed Height: 70 cm Closed Width: 76 cm Closed Depth: 39 cm Open Height: 70 cm Open Width: 76 cm Open Depth: 87 cm
