Description

This antique 20th-century pair of mahogany bedside cabinets are beautifully crafted and of excellent quality throughout, showcasing elegant traditional styling and fine workmanship. Each cabinet features a drawer to the upper section above a single-door cupboard, providing practical storage while maintaining graceful and balanced proportions. Raised on elegant cabriole legs and retaining all of their original handles and fittings, the cabinets display timeless character and attention to detail. The mahogany boasts beautiful grain and attractive figuring throughout, complemented by a rich, warm colour that enhances their overall appearance. With their desirable proportions and versatile design, these bedside cabinets would suit both period and contemporary interiors alike. Presented in good condition, this rare and highly desirable pair would make a perfect addition to any bedroom or living space, combining practicality with classic antique charm.
