Description

This antique 20th-century Edwardian dining table in burl walnut is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant period styling throughout. Very well made and of good quality, the table stands on graceful cabriole legs with beautifully carved knees and decorative carved feet, giving it a refined and highly decorative appearance. A carved frieze further enhances the craftsmanship and attention to detail, while the burl walnut displays stunning figuring, gorgeous grain, and rich warm colour throughout, creating a truly eye-catching centrepiece. The combination of elegant proportions and exceptional timber quality makes this a highly desirable example of Edwardian furniture. Presented in good condition, this attractive dining table would make a perfect addition to any home, ideally suited to both traditional and contemporary dining interiors alike.
