Description

This antique 19th-century Victorian chest on stand in oak is a superb and highly decorative piece, showcasing fine quality craftsmanship and exceptional attention to detail throughout. Very well made and full of character, the chest features a lift-up lid to the top opening to reveal a large internal storage compartment, offering both practicality and traditional charm. Below are two drawers retaining their original handles and fittings, adding authenticity and useful additional storage. The piece stands on elegant turned legs united by a supportive stretcher, giving it a refined and well-balanced appearance typical of quality Victorian furniture. Beautifully carved throughout with intricate detailing, this chest on stand demonstrates a high level of craftsmanship and artistry. The oak displays rich natural grain and warm colour throughout, further enhancing the beauty and appeal of this rare and highly desirable example. Presented in good condition, this outstanding Victorian piece would make a perfect addition to any home, ideal as a statement storage piece in a hallway, bedroom, living room, or period interior.
