Description

This antique 20th-century Edwardian chest of drawers in oak is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant period styling throughout. The chest features three drawers to the front, beautifully decorated with linenfold design panels and subtle carved detailing, demonstrating fine craftsmanship and attention to detail. All of the drawers retain their original decorative handles and fittings, adding authenticity and character to the piece. Raised on a sturdy plinth base, the chest has a solid and well-balanced appearance typical of quality Edwardian furniture. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and warm colour throughout, further enhancing the charm and timeless appeal of this highly desirable example. Presented in good condition, this attractive chest of drawers would make a perfect addition to any home, ideal for use in a bedroom, hallway, or living space.
