Description

Antique French Wrought Iron Planter with Copper Liner A charming antique French planter crafted from wrought iron, featuring elegant scrollwork and a classic decorative form. This piece comes complete with a copper liner, adding both practicality and a lovely contrast to the dark iron frame. The planter displays a beautiful aged patina, enhancing its character and authenticity. Ideal for use in a garden, patio, or conservatory, it also works wonderfully as a statement decorative piece indoors. Dimensions H: 77 x W: 79 x D: 40 cm Material Wrought iron with copper liner Condition Good antique condition with age related wear. The patina is consistent with age and adds to its appeal. The copper liner shows signs of use but remains functional. A superb decorative planter that brings timeless French style to any setting.
