Description

Antique Victorian oak stool with a leather upholstered seat, offering both character and practicality. The solid oak frame has a warm aged patina with good grain throughout, typical of the Victorian period. The leather seat shows attractive wear consistent with age, adding to its authentic vintage appeal. Sturdy and well constructed, it is ideal as a footstool, occasional seat, or decorative accent piece in both traditional and modern interiors. Dimensions Height 33 cm Width 51 cm Depth 35 cm A charming and versatile antique piece in good overall condition for its age.
