Description

This antique 20th-century Regency style cabinet in mahogany is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant traditional design throughout. Very well made and of good quality, the cabinet features a decorative brass gallery to the top above an open central shelf, combining practicality with refined Regency-inspired styling. Below sits a single drawer retaining its original decorative brass handle, while the piece is raised on elegant turned legs fitted with brass casters for both stability and ease of movement. The ebonised legs and turned supports, along with delicate ebony inlay, provide striking contrast and highlight the exceptional attention to detail throughout. The mahogany displays gorgeous rich grain, stunning figuring, and warm colour, further enhancing the beauty and sophistication of this highly desirable example. Presented in good condition, this attractive cabinet would make a perfect addition to any home, ideal for use as a side cabinet, occasional table, or decorative statement piece within both traditional and contemporary interiors alike.
