Description

A stylish Edwardian Chinoiserie decorated cheval mirror with original decoration and mirror glass c.1910. The slender proportioned adjustable mirror with oblong frame is supported by two tapering uprights; each upright with turned finial to the top. Base stretcher below, which is supporting slender cabriole legs. Decorated with the original hand painted chinoiserie designs, which are set against a black Japanned finish and complemented with gilt trim. Original mirror glass in good order with boarded back, which has a matching Japanned finish to allow free standing. Presented in excellent original condition.
