Description

This antique 20th-century Edwardian cupboard in oak is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and timeless period styling throughout. Very well made and sturdy in construction, the cupboard features a two-door front fitted with brass handles, providing practical storage while maintaining an elegant and balanced appearance. Raised on turned legs united by a supportive stretcher, the piece reflects the classic craftsmanship associated with Edwardian furniture. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and warm colour throughout, further enhancing the charm and character of this highly desirable example. Presented in good condition, this attractive cupboard would make a perfect addition to any home, ideal for use in a hallway, dining room, living space, or study where both practicality and traditional style are desired.
