Description

Antique 19th Century walnut and gilt metal mounted whatnot of elegant serpentine form. This decorative open tier stand features beautifully shaped walnut shelves enhanced by gilt metal mounts, giving it both refinement and presence. The serpentine outline adds movement and sophistication, making it an ideal display piece for porcelain, bronzes, books or decorative objects. A fine example of 19th century craftsmanship with rich walnut grain and warm patina throughout. The gilt metal mounts provide a striking contrast against the timber and elevate the overall design. Fresh to market and sourced from the estate of Corby Castle. Dimensions Height 155 cm Width 71 cm Depth 44 cm A superb statement piece that would suit both traditional and contemporary interiors.
