Description

This antique 20th-century Edwardian card table in mahogany is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant period styling throughout. Designed in a graceful demi-lune shape, the table displays refined proportions and exceptional attention to detail. The piece stands on beautifully carved cabriole legs with striking claw and ball feet and decorative carved knees, while the carved frieze to the top further enhances its sophisticated appearance. Opening out to reveal a beautiful green felt playing surface, the table combines practicality with timeless decorative appeal. The mahogany displays rich grain and warm colour throughout, complementing the elegant craftsmanship and traditional design. Presented in good condition, this highly desirable Edwardian card table would make a wonderful addition to any home, ideal for use as both a decorative occasional table and a functional games table.
