Description

This peak 20th-century mahogany side table by E.G. Hudson is a superb example of fine quality craftsmanship and elegant traditional design. Exceptionally well made and of the finest quality, the table features a single drawer to the front retaining its original handle and key, adding both practicality and authenticity to the piece. Raised on elegant tapered legs with refined reeded decoration, the table has a graceful and well-balanced appearance, showcasing the high standard of workmanship associated with E.G. Hudson furniture. The mahogany displays beautiful rich grain, stunning figuring, and warm colour throughout, further enhancing the timeless appeal of this highly desirable example. Compact in size yet full of character, this attractive side table would suit a variety of interiors and uses, whether as a lamp table, occasional table, or bedside piece. A truly gorgeous example that would have cost a fortune when originally made, it remains in good condition and would make a perfect addition to any home.
