Description

This antique 20th-century twin pedestal dining table in mahogany is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant Regency style design throughout. Very well made and sturdy in construction, the table features a classic twin pedestal base fitted with brass casters, combining practicality with timeless sophistication. The table comes with one additional extension leaf along with four securing clips, allowing it to be easily extended when extra dining space is required. Reeded edging adds a refined decorative touch, while the mahogany displays gorgeous rich grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing the overall beauty and character of the piece. Presented in good condition, this highly desirable dining table would make a stunning centrepiece for any dining room, perfectly suited to both traditional and contemporary interiors alike.
