Description

This antique 20th-century farmhouse dresser base in pine is a beautifully crafted piece, full of rustic charm and traditional character. Very well made and of good quality throughout, the dresser features three drawers to the upper section, all retaining their original knob handles, providing practical storage while complementing the authentic farmhouse design. Below is a large open shelf area with a small surrounding gallery, offering useful display and storage space ideal for baskets, cookware, books, or decorative items. Raised on elegant turned legs, the piece has a well-balanced and attractive appearance with plenty of country-style charm. The pine displays gorgeous natural grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing the timeless appeal and character of the dresser. Very well designed and presented in good condition, this highly desirable example would make a perfect addition to any home, especially suited to farmhouse, cottage, or traditional interiors.
