Description

This antique 19th-century Victorian Sutherland table in burr walnut is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant period design throughout. Very well made and highly practical, the table stands on turned supports united by a sturdy stretcher, with original brass casters adding both functionality and traditional Victorian charm. The burr walnut displays breathtaking grain, stunning figuring, and rich warm colour throughout, creating a truly eye-catching appearance and highlighting the exceptional quality of the timber. The refined proportions and versatile folding design make this piece both decorative and highly functional for a variety of interiors. Presented in good condition, this highly desirable Victorian Sutherland table would make a perfect addition to any home, ideal for use as an occasional table, lamp table, or compact dining and display surface when required.
