Four Elegant Victorian Cast Iron Garden Chairs c. 1880

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1216226*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A really pretty and elegant true set of four cast iron garden chairs of superior quality and in the manner of Coalbrookdale, with sinuous foliate and vine entwined pierced backs and seats, lions masks to top rail and very finely detailed cabriole front legs and hocked splayed back legs with scrolled toes. . All original including the original fixings and in excellent condition throughout. . The paint work is attractively weathered and despite their dainty appearance, the chairs are very heavy and sturdy. . Shown here with a Falkirk Ironworks Zodiac table (for sale separately) and both from a private vendor where they have been well loved and well looked after for about 40 years. . They are really comfortable to use also! . Strongly recommended. . . Dimensions of each chair are: . Height = 35.5 inches, Depth (max) = 15 inches, Width (max) = 14 inches. . Height from floor to top of seat = 17.75 inches. Height from seat to top of back is 17 inches.
