Description

This is a elegant, high quality William IV period country house armchair. It has been upholstered recently to a great standard (Not by us however) in a grey linen type material. Meaning it is perfect as is to go straight into your space. We can however still recover this should you want to add your own stamp to it. The chair itself has a beautifully carved mahogany show wood frame that works very well with the upholstery fabric. The chair stands on stylish tall legs complete with original casters.
