Description

A small Edwardian mahogany work table of oval form in the Sheraton Revival style. The well-figured quarter-veneered top set over a single small drawer and lower sliding work basket, all raised on slender line-inlaid legs united by a serpentine X-stretcher centred by a turned finial. Fully finished on the reverse to allow for freestanding placement, its diminutive footprint and delicate proportions allow it to work well as occasional piece beside seating or even as small bedside table where space is at a premium. Very good antique condition, with some surface wear consistent with age and historic repairs to the stretchers. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1910.
