Description

This is a great looking, totally original early 20th century Oval pine and oak dining table. Very impressive size and gorgeous shape meaning it would make a great feature in any space. The pine top has attractive aged wear throughout with a tactile finish around the curved ends. This table will comfortably sit 12-14 people with dining chairs or more if you were to pair it with benches. The legs are oak and all legs have a oak block on them (original) but can be removed to lower the table if needs be. This table does not break down so all access for delivery will have to accomodate as is. Height 78cm Length 350cm Depth 101cm
