Description

A bold and impressive carved mahogany writing table in the manner of Thomas Chippendale. Of generous proportions, made and originally retailed by Maple and Co of London. Well constructed in solid mahogany and decorated with carved detailing throughout. The serpentine shaped top is fitted with sumptuous conker brown leather panels, complete with tooled decorations to the surrounds. With a series of 3 long drawers to the front. All standing on bold legs, terminating in hairy paw feet and original castors. Offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home or office. Dimensions: Width 152cms Depth 91cms Height 78cms Knee hole clearance 62cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A t...
