Description

Perfect for your antique dresser ! A really lovely, colourful set of Six Early 19th Century Antique English Georgian Ironstone China Plates. Just the one impress marked "IRONSTONE CHINA" this illustrated in Image No. 3, while all six bear Painter's monograms in underglaze red. Here attributed to G.M. & C.J. Mason of Lane Delph, Staffordshire, { 1813 - 1829 }, who first introduced Ironstone China in 1813. While their products were soon copied by rival potters, this attribution is based upon a close comparison of these plates with another, presently held in our inventory, Our Stock Ref. AEGMIIPP1-130, which very similar example is fully marked. N.B. :- Other items from this service presently available ~ LOVE This Item ? ~ Why Not Make Us An Offer ?
