Description

An atmospheric Japanese woodblock print by Shiro Kasamatsu (1898-1991). Entitled "'Yudanaka Hot Springs', The night time setting amplifies the light from inside the buildings and the melting snow on the path. The print has been recently purchased from a private collection in England and is in very good original condition, fully signed and stamped. The print is dated 1950. The mount has foxing to the edge as seen in the photos, which could be cleaned or replaced as required, but the print itself has no such damage. The print is an 'Oban size' meaning the print itself is 15 inches x 10inches. The overall size including frame is 21.5 inches x 16.5 inches.
