Description

A good quality stationery cabinet dating from the late 19th Century made from the most beautiful burr walnut. It has a lovely warm patina with a sloped front and brass escutcheon. The doors opens out to reveal a series of racks for holding papers and letters and there is also a pen tray and a glass inkwell. There is a large drawer at the bottom and the cabinet comes with its original working key. It is in very good condition for its age. There are a few small knocks and marks around the outside, general signs of age and use and a few small chips but nothing detrimental. The interior is clean and tidy. It has been cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £12
