Description

A good example of an antique stick back farmhouse chair dating from the late 19th / early 20th century. It has a shaped elm seat with curved arms supported by turned spindles. It is high backed with narrow spindles standing on turned legs joined by a central stretcher. The rear of the seat is stamped with the maker's initials W.L and the number 56. The chair stands approximately 40" (102cm) high and is 20 1/2" (52cm) wide across the arms. The seat is 17 3/4" (45cm) deep and 17 1/4" (44cm) high. It is in good original condition and displays well. There are signs of age and use and some marks and light knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental. There are some signs of historic woodworm in places which has all been treated as a precaution. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
