Description

JOHN. A. MONTEITH (exhibited 1885 - 1903) Oil painting A stunning, large and very fine signed oil painting by the rare English genre painter. John Monteith who exhibited from 1885 until 1903. He likely died an early death as his paintings are uncommon, and his exhibition history ended abruptly in 1903. This work depicts elegant women on a balcony overlooking some event in the street or garden below. The work is signed lower left and unlined and unrestored. Title: "Elegant women on a balcony" Signature: Signed lower left Provenance: Private UK collection - from the contents of a ballroom of a hotel Medium: Oil on original canvas Size: c. 30 x 25 inches unframed / 34 x 29 inches framed Condition: Unlined original canvas - some very small spots of retouching John Monteith was an English genre painter who was active and exhibited between 1885 and 1903. It is believed he was born in Scotland but painted in England and exhibited at the Royal Academy in London and the Royal Society of British Artists. Little else is known about his life, and it's likely he died around 1903 as all exhibition history of the painter ...
