Description

Auguste Henri Carli female bust in alabaster and marble. Auguste Carli was born on 12 July 1868 in Marseille, Bouches-du-Rhône, France. He studied at Ecole des Beaux Artes. He was a pupil of Jules Cavelier and Ernest Barrias. Carli achieved recognition when he was awarded a first-class medal at the 1902 Salon des Artistes Français for his work "L'esprit et la matière." Carli designed two statues on either side of the main staircase of the Gare de Marseille-Saint-Charles. He also designed a statue of Jesus Christ and Saint Veronica, which is displayed inside the Marseille Cathedral. He died on 28 January 1930 in Paris. A very rare and beautiful example of his work. In excellent condition for its age. Signed by the artist Carli. 25cm high 20cm wide 4.5cm depth Only for sale in the UK, not overseas due to the weight of the piece.
