Description

An Extremely Good Quality Mid 19th Century, Victorian, Burr Walnut Stationary Box, With Profuse Original Brass Bound Decoration And Hinged Dome Lid, Enclosing Lined And Fitted Interior Arranged With Dividers For Letters, Documents And Writing Implements. This is a very attractive little 19th century box, of relatively typical design for the period, constructed from high quality and well figured walnut veneers. It also boasts good quality brass mounted decoration and therefore boasts great elegance. Although similar in size to a tea caddy, this appears to have been made as a stationary box, boasting a lovely fitted interior. As with all items which we offer for sale it has been inspected in our workshops by our highly skilled and trained antique furniture restorers and received a natural wax polish, before being presented for sale, so as to ensure its in its best possible condition and ready for immediate placement following purchase. It also comes with working lock and key. Circa 1860. Height 5.25in. Width 7.25in. Depth 4.25in.
