Description

Hand coloured botanical engraving, dating from the 1830s-1840s by Victorian engravers J. & J. Parkin. Presented in a mid-toned natural wood frame with neutral mount. One of a large group of 20 available. A wonderful cross-section of early Victorian garden favourites. Notable specimens include the "Royal Sovereign" Tulip, Florist Auriculas, Dahlias and Chrysanthemums, as well as charming mixed studies of pansies, morning glories, and salvias. Condition: Good antique condition. In keeping with their age, the sheets and mounts exhibit areas of light foxing. Picture - Height 21.5cm x Width 13cm. Frame - Height 39cm Width x 26.5cm.
