Description

An impressive and substantial Continental oak and walnut armoire of exceptional presence, featuring a beautifully figured exterior with elegant scalloped double doors and a shaped cornice. The doors retain their original working key and open to a spacious interior fitted with four removable shelves. Constructed in five main sections plus two pinned doors, the piece can be dismantled for transportation and is almost flat-pack in nature, making it far easier to move than its size suggests. The raised panel sides and moulded plinth base further enhance its quality and craftsmanship. The interior shelves can be removed and a hanging rail fitted if desired, allowing the piece to serve equally well as a wardrobe or storage cupboard. Presented in very good condition throughout, with a rich warm colour and attractive figuring to the timber. A striking and highly practical piece of furniture, offering excellent storage and considerable decorative appeal. W 189cm (74.5") D 72.5cm (28.5") H max 210cm (83")
