Description

A handsome George I style walnut chest of drawers, beautifully crafted with attractive figured walnut veneers and rich warm colouring throughout. Featuring a practical pull-out brushing slide above an arrangement of five long graduated drawers, the chest offers excellent storage while retaining elegant period proportions. The drawer fronts display striking walnut grain patterns complemented by decorative brass swan-neck handles and escutcheons, enhancing the chest's traditional English character. Raised on classic bun feet, this piece embodies the restrained elegance associated with early 18th-century furniture design. Compact in size yet offering generous storage capacity, this walnut chest is ideally suited to a bedroom, dressing room, hallway, or living space. Its timeless appearance allows it to integrate effortlessly into both traditional and country house interiors. Key Features • George I style walnut chest of drawers • Attractive figured walnut veneers throughout • Pull-out brushing slide beneath the top • Five long graduated drawers • Original-style brass swan-neck handles and escutcheons • Raised on traditional bun feet • Warm rich walnut patina • Elegant...
