Description

19th Century Oak Dresser Base with Pot Board and Three Drawers A superb 19th century oak dresser base of generous proportions, combining practical storage with classic country house charm. Crafted from solid oak, the piece displays a beautiful warm colour and well-developed patina acquired through years of careful use. The dresser features three drawers across the front, each fitted with decorative brass drop handles, above a traditional pot board base offering useful additional storage and display space. The shaped apron beneath the drawers adds a touch of elegance, while the clean lines and sturdy construction reflect the quality craftsmanship of the period. Its versatile proportions make it ideal for use in a kitchen, dining room, hallway, or living space, where it can serve as a sideboard, serving table, or storage cabinet. A timeless antique that blends effortlessly into both traditional and contemporary interiors. Key Features • Authentic 19th century oak dresser base • Constructed from solid oak • Three drawers with decorative brass drop handles • Traditional pot board base for additional storage • Attractive shaped apron detail • Rich oak patina and warm colo...
