Description

A beautiful antique fruitwood farmhouse kitchen table, combining practical functionality with timeless country charm. Crafted from solid fruitwood, this substantial table features a generously proportioned plank top displaying wonderful grain, rich colour, and a naturally aged patina developed over decades of use. Designed for everyday practicality, the table incorporates a single drawer to one end, providing convenient storage for cutlery, linens, or kitchen essentials. The sturdy construction, simple lines, and traditional farmhouse styling make it a highly versatile piece suitable for a kitchen, dining room, breakfast room, or country cottage interior. Standing on robust tapering legs united by a stretcher base, this table offers excellent stability while retaining the honest character and craftsmanship associated with traditional rural furniture. Its generous dimensions comfortably accommodate family dining, entertaining, or use as a large preparation table. A classic antique farmhouse table that brings warmth, authenticity, and character to both period and contemporary homes. Key Features • Authentic antique fruitwood farmhouse kitchen table • Solid fruitwood constr...
