Description

A superb set of twelve Irish George IV, Regency Period, flame mahogany dining chairs, Circa 1825 in date. The set comprises ten side chairs and a pair of armchairs all masterfully crafted in beautiful solid flame mahogany. Each with a curved back and shaped eared foliate wrapped s-scroll carved top rail centred by a lapped lambrequin, above an acanthus carved baluster form splat. The chairs are raised on stylish ring turned baluster and reeded tapering front legs, square splayed rear legs, with stuff over drop in seats that have been reupholstered in a sumptuous cream damask. Transform the fine dining experience in your home with this antique set of dining chairs fit for a king. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned polished and reupholstered in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
