Description

A late Victorian oak side table, the solid single plank top with carved rear cresting over two frieze drawers, all standing on turned legs united by a stretcher frame. A characterful table in the English Jacobean Revival taste, its narrow proportions make it ideal for use in a hallway or as an accent table within a sitting room. Very good antique condition with some surface wear consistent with age. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1890.
