Description

This antique 20th-century Edwardian sideboard in mahogany is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant period styling throughout. Very well made and of good quality, the sideboard features two drawers to the upper section above two cupboards to the base, providing a practical and versatile storage arrangement. The left-hand side cupboard is open for convenient access, while the right-hand cupboard contains a single internal shelf, offering additional concealed storage. The piece retains all of its original handles and fittings, adding authenticity and character to this highly desirable example. Raised on graceful cabriole Queen Anne style legs, the sideboard has a refined and elegant appearance typical of Edwardian furniture. The mahogany displays gorgeous rich grain, beautiful figuring, and warm colour throughout, further enhancing the quality and charm of the piece. Presented in good condition, this very desirable Edwardian sideboard would make a stunning addition to any dining room, hallway, or living space, combining practicality with timeless antique appeal.
