Description

Antique 19th century Victorian breakfast table in mahogany, very well made and of fine quality. Featuring a beautiful circular top with a tilt-top design, allowing the table to be easily stored when not in use. Standing on a beautifully carved pillar base with casters, this elegant table displays the quality craftsmanship and attention to detail associated with the Victorian period. Boasting gorgeous mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, it has a wonderful presence and highly attractive proportions. A very desirable example with a particularly pleasing shape, combining practicality with timeless style. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain and colour throughout, this is a stunning piece and a perfect addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5823
