Description

This is a pair of antique fireplace andirons. A French, wrought iron hearth accoutrements, dating to the Art Nouveau period, circa 1900. Superb and expressive forms in the striking Art Nouveau manner. Displaying a desirably aged patina and in good order throughout. Robust wrought iron displays a good, consistent graphite finish. Of shallow proportion, ideal for adding a decorative flourish to the fireplace. Excellent ball finial with open panels adorn the top of each rest. Pair of distinctive scrolled front legs, each tightly curling to their terminus. Rear support leg with short stanchion, useful for resting fire tools. This is a delightful pair of antique andirons, graced with Art Nouveau elegance. Delivered ready to frame the fireplace.
