Description

Antique 20th century Arts and Crafts bureau in golden oak, exceptionally well made and of the finest quality. A rare and highly desirable example, featuring beautiful decorative detailing throughout and showcasing the outstanding craftsmanship associated with the Arts and Crafts movement. The upper section incorporates a nicely fitted interior, providing practical storage for correspondence and stationery, while an open shelf to the top and another to the centre add both display space and visual appeal. Below is a two-door cupboard offering further storage, making this a highly functional and versatile piece. Retaining its original handles, fittings and key, this bureau boasts a stunning golden oak colour with gorgeous grain throughout. The quality of construction and attention to detail are evident from every angle, creating a piece full of character and charm. Presented in great condition, this exceptional bureau has to be seen in person to be truly appreciated. A rare find combining beauty, practicality and craftsmanship, making it a perfect addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5866
