Description

A Lovely Antique Cheese Dish combining a silver plated base with a deeply cut glass dome. A faceted glass knob handle sits neatly at the top for lifting and serving. The silver plated base is formed as a low gallery ring, giving the piece a clean, practical profile. A removable circular glass liner sits within the stand to create a hygienic serving surface. The arrangement keeps butter, cheese, or petits fours covered and presentable between courses – circa 1920. Measurements: Height: 5" (approx. 12.5cm) Diameter of base: 6 1/4" (approx. 15.5cm) Total weight: 871g In good condition – There are no chips or cracks to the glass. The silver plate surfaces show only light wear consistent with age.
