Description

A Lovely Small Antique Edwardian Solid Silver Gilt Interior Trinket Box raised on four decorative feet and finished with a softly shaped, scalloped outline. The lid is embossed in relief with a charming group of winged cherubs, giving the piece a distinctly Edwardian romantic character. The interior is gilded, a practical finish often used to protect silver from contact with toiletries, sweets, or small personal items. A hinged lid provides a satisfying, secure closure and allows the box to be used as a proper little casket rather than a simple dish. Hallmarked for Birmingham, 1906. * It offers a refined place for rings, cufflinks, or other small daily essentials. Measurements: Height: 2" (approx. 5cm) Width: 4 1/4" (approx. 11cm) Depth: 2 1/4" (approx. 5.5cm) Silver weight: 134g In good condition - The sterling silver shows only light surface wear consistent with age and gentle handling. The gilded interior is still nice and even toned.
