Description

Antique 20th century sideboard in oak, well made and of good quality. Featuring two drawers to the upper section above two cupboards to the base, with the right-hand cupboard containing a single internal shelf, providing practical and versatile storage. Retaining all of its original knob handles and fittings, this attractive sideboard stands on bracket feet and is enhanced by beautifully carved drawer fronts, showcasing the quality craftsmanship and attention to detail throughout. Boasting gorgeous oak grain and rich colour, this piece has excellent proportions and plenty of character, making it both a practical and decorative addition to the home. A highly desirable example in good condition, displaying beautiful grain and colour throughout. A charming and versatile piece, perfect for a dining room, hallway or living space, and a wonderful addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5830
