Description

Antique 20th century set of six dining chairs in oak, exceptionally well made and of the finest quality. Comprising six single chairs, each featuring beautiful oak frames displaying gorgeous grain, rich colour and stunning figuring throughout. The chairs are upholstered with leather backs and seats, enhanced by decorative brass studding around the edges, creating an elegant and timeless appearance. Standing on square legs united by supporting stretchers, they are of solid construction and showcase outstanding craftsmanship and attention to detail. Boasting excellent proportions and wonderful character, this is a highly desirable set that combines comfort, durability and style. The quality of the oak and the attractive leather upholstery make these chairs a particularly impressive example. Presented in very good condition, with solid frames and no movement, this superb set has to be seen in person to be truly appreciated. A beautiful and practical set of dining chairs, perfect for any home.
