Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian washstand in walnut, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a beautiful marble top with a raised gallery to the rear and a bevel-edged mirror above, creating an elegant and highly decorative appearance. The base consists of a two-door cupboard with stunning burr walnut doors, retaining its original brass handles and offering useful storage space. Further enhancing the piece are the original rails to either side, while the turned legs and original casters add both character and practicality. Boasting gorgeous walnut grain and rich colour throughout, this washstand displays excellent craftsmanship and wonderful Edwardian styling. A highly desirable example in good condition, with beautiful proportions and attractive features throughout. A charming and versatile piece that would make a perfect addition to any home.
