Description

Antique 19th century large Victorian dining table in mahogany, exceptionally well made and of the finest quality. A superb example of Victorian craftsmanship, featuring a substantial top with three additional extension leaves and its original winding handle, allowing the table to extend to an impressive size for larger gatherings and special occasions. Standing on chunky turned legs fitted with beautiful original brass and porcelain casters, this table combines strength, elegance and practicality. The refined proportions and quality of construction are evident throughout, making it a truly outstanding piece of antique furniture. Boasting gorgeous mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, this dining table has a wonderful presence and exceptional character. When fully extended it becomes a very large table, ideal for entertaining while remaining equally attractive in its smaller configuration. A stunning and highly desirable example in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout. This remarkable table has to be seen in person to be truly appreciated and would make a magnificent addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5851 Meas...
