Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

A Large 18th century Dutch linen press/cupboard. The top with 2 large panelled doors which open to reveal internal doors and shelves. Above this is a crisply carved pediment with scrolling foliage topped with a large shell motif. The bottom bombe shaped chest with 3 large drawers with original brass handles. With carved frieze & standing on large lions paw feet. This would make a fabulous addition to a country house kitchen. A really useful piece of furniture.
