Description

Overview A beautiful set of six antique walnut balloon back dining chairs dating from the Victorian period. Crafted from solid walnut, these elegant chairs feature finely carved balloon-shaped backs with decorative floral and foliate carvings, shaped cabriole front legs, and generously proportioned serpentine seats. The chairs retain their attractive figured walnut frames and are upholstered in a quality cream damask fabric finished with decorative braid trim. Their graceful proportions and rich walnut colour make them ideal for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Offering comfort, quality craftsmanship, and timeless design, this set would work perfectly around a dining table, as occasional chairs, or within a formal reception room.
